

United States District Court Eastern District Wisconsin
Plaintiff: Frederick Morris

V. Case No 22-CV-716

Defendant: Tonia Rozmarynski

Amended complaint

on July 8th 2021 I was in confinement (restrictive housing) in Green Bay Correctional Institution. I was on the even side of the 400 wing in cell 408a. I was on observation status. I was on a hunger strike/starving myself. See 21-CV-1393. I was unable to properly walk and would collapse due to being weak from starving myself. See 21-CV-1393. I was told I had to go refuse Hsu for hunger strike I refused as I have the right to do. Tonia Rozmarynski had a few staff assemble for a cell extraction on me so they put on gas masks and protective gear and came to cell 408a housing me. I was given directives to come to the door and submit to restraints. I laid on the floor hands behind my back legs up crossed to surrender to them (the extraction team). Tonia Rozmarynski gave me directives to submit to restraints. I stayed in the same position. She then informed me staff were not going to enter the cell. I stayed in the surrendering position. Tonia Rozmarynski 1 of 2 the sprayed me with a mark 3 oc spray. I stayed in the surrendering position. Tonia Rozmarynski then told me if I did not comply she would deploy a second burst of oc into

The cell. I stayed in the surrendering position. Tonia Rozmarynski then Deployed a burst of mack 9 oc vapor. I began to not be able to breath and was burning. I crawled to the door and was placed in restraints and assisted into a wheelchair and taken to Hsu to ~~the~~ refuse. I Declined a shower cause the oc would have went to my anus and genitals. See Ex 1, constitutional rights to prisoner, DAI policy 300.co.57, cooper v matti, No Force was needed making this one Excessive force two I have a right to refuse medical aid making this a due process violation, Three I could not properly walk but was sprayd with oc cruel and unusual punishment, 21-CV-1393. Defendant is author of exhibit 1. Relief wanted: 250,000 punitive, <sup>damages</sup> Injunction that I not be forced to refuse Hsu at Hsu door with no court order.

Respectfully submitted
